

Do you have a way with words or would love to have a go at some word wizardry?

Stay and create with 'Rubbish Words', brought to you by the National Poetry Centre.

Drop-in & stay as long as you like!

When? Fri 18 — Sun 20 Oct	Timings? 10am — 4pm	Where? Leeds Corn Exchange
-------------------------------------	-------------------------------	--------------------------------------

Everyone is welcome to unleash their creativity using recyclable materials such as magazines, old posters and theatre programmes. Together, we will transform the words we see around us every day into surprising new forms, which will be turned into an artwork.

We want to remind people how much fun words can be!

Rubbish Words is made possible thanks to funding from Leeds City Council's Cultural Investment Programme Grow: Project strand and the University of Leeds, and is part of the Poetry School's Summit Festival.

